ABOUT MADELYN

Madelyn Mackie, CCMC, is a career and professional development speaker, trainer and coach. She is a Certified Career Management Coach, member of the National Resume Writers Association, Member of the National Speakers Association and has presented in front of corporate, government, non-profit and community audiences. Her clients include: Mills College, American Red Cross, International Association of Administrative Professionals, Wardrobe for Opportunity, Centro Community Partners and she is also a career specialist for the national outplacement firm, Lee Hecht Harrison. Madelyn draws on her experience of navigating 4 high profile careers –the lab, the stage, the c-suite, and the owners box– to help individuals move past their fears and advance their careers.

Madelyn was by far my favorite presenter, not only because she is such a personable and professional person. She is extremely knowledgeable about her topic and area of expertise.
